Rules and Regulations Of the Riverwatch Condominium Association

The Board of Directors shall have such powers for the conduct of the affairs of the Association, as are granted by law and the Governing Documents, including the following:

The Board of Directors shall adopt general rules to regulate potential problems relating to the maintenance, repair and replacement of the exterior portions of units and the use of Common Area. General rules may only be adopted or amended by a majority vote of the Board of Directors.

The following rules and regulations shall govern the use and operation of the property known as Riverwatch Condominium Association. These rules and regulations have been formulated not only for the safety and welfare of the owners and residents, but also to protect the owner's privacy, property and the quality of your investment. These rules shall apply to all present and future owners, mortgagees, lessees and occupants of the homes and of the common areas, their agents, employees and guests.

1. In the interest of safety, the driveways and walkways and all entrances, etc., shall be used only for access to and from each condominium and must not be obstructed. This includes those portions of the common areas intended for use by owners and residents.
2. Cycles, scooters, carriages or similar vehicles, or toys or other personal articles shall not be left unattended in any part of the common area.
3. No resident shall plant, place, prune, or remove trees, shrubs or other plantings without first getting written permission from the Board of Directors.
4. In consideration of others owners, no homeowner shall make or permit any noise, vibration or odor that will unreasonably disturb or annoy the occupants of any of the other dwellings.
5. No animal shall be permitted in any portion of the common areas unless on a leash or carried. Pet owners are expected to see that their pets do not foul the walks or driveways or any other area which might be offensive to other homeowners; pet owners are responsible for cleaning up after their pets in the aforementioned areas.
6. Children shall not be permitted to loiter or play upon the driveways, intersections and other hazardous areas.
7. All window coverings visible from the outside of the dwelling must be proper window treatments, such as drapes or blinds, lined in white or off-white. Sheets or temporary coverings in windows shall be permitted only during the first three months of occupancy or during repairs.
8. No commercial or other non-passenger vehicles or any type and no unlicensed motor vehicle of any type shall be permitted to remain overnight.
9. In order that access routes be kept clear vehicles must be parked only in the areas provided for that purpose. No other vehicles including by way of example, but not limited to, trailers of any variety, boats, mobile homes, commercial or recreational vehicles shall be parked on common areas. No vehicle shall be parked in such a manner to impede or prevent ingress or egress of other cars.
10. Any complaints regarding the maintenance of Riverwatch or the actions of the Board of Directors, agents or independent contractors, or any of the other homeowners, members of his family, guest, employees, tenants, shall be made in writing to the Board of Directors or its Agent.
